ABOUT FLAVIA ABADÍA

Flavia is an energetic, passionate and hardworking DJ, singer/songwriter and dancer with a passion for health, fitness and travel.

Born in France, she is of Colombian and French-Canadian decent. Since a very young age Flavia knew she wanted to be an artist. After a second chance at life (after being hit by a drunk driver) she decided to pursue her passion full-time!

In 2017 Flavia released her first urban/pop music project in a short EP called "Love and Indifference" with music videos for the singles "Sweet Lovin" and "Too Late".

In 2018 she released the music video for her single "Attitude" filmed in Madrid and Toronto, followed by the single and music video "Enough Of This" filmed in the Algarve, Portugal.

Her latest Spanglish song "Trumpets" was followed by it's remix "Trumpets- Remix" with a music video shot in Havana, Cuba.

Flavia continues to DJ for various events including corporate events, weddings, restaurants, clubs, mitzvah's, special events, private parties and more.

"Flavia enchants me more with each track she releases. First it was Attitude, then Enough of This. Now it's Trumpets [and Trumpets - Remix], a Latin-infused dance track featuring, unsurprisingly, a hefty amount of Trumpets. Flavia's sensual vocals are back in spades and a hip-shaking beat rounds things off nicely."

-Graeme Smith (York Calling)
