ABOUT FLAVIA ABADÍA

Flavia is a sought after Toronto-based energetic, passionate, hardworking and versatile DJ, singer/songwriter and dancer with a passion for health, fitness and travel.

Born in France, of Colombian and French-Canadian decent, she is the grand-daughter of the first Colombian actor in Hollywood, Julio Abadía,

After a second chance at life, being hit by a drunk driver, she decided to pursue her passion for entertainment full-time!

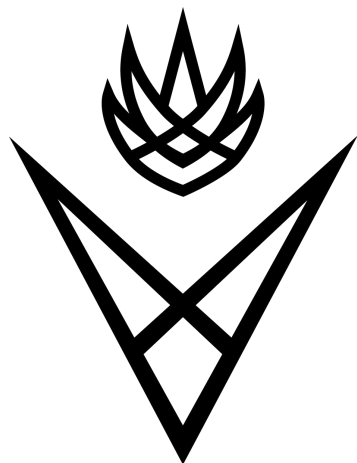

In 2017 Flavia released her first urban/pop music project in a short EP called "Love and Indifference" with music videos for the singles "Sweet Lovin" and "Too Late".

In 2018 she released the music video for her single "Attitude" filmed in Madrid and Toronto, followed by the single and music video "Enough Of This" filmed in the Algarve, Portugal.

Her latest Spanglish song "Trumpets (Remix)" gaining popularity in South America and Europe was shot in Havana, Cuba.

Flavia's musical taste, skill, positive energy and international appeal have quickly helped her gain momentum and brought her to stages and events across Canada, USA, Mexico and Portugal.

With over 185 thousand streams on YouTube and 51 thousand streams on Spotify, sky's the limit for Flavia as she continues to work hard and pursue her dreams.
